"GOD'S PEOPLE" IN JAIL

Masson's Followers Refuse to Pay Fines for Working Sunday. Two members of the self-styled "God's People," of Woodcilff, N. J., are prisoners on the charge of violating the Sunday law by the charge of violating the Sunday law by working on that day. They are Garret Storms and Mrs. Elizabeth Berry, and they are in liackensack Jail.

The sect is led by Huntaman Mnason, who work a large farm. Men and women all live under one roof, but do not believe in marriage, nor in Sunday as a day of rest.

Justice Wortendyre, of Woodcliff, to-day nined each of the prisoners $3, but they claimed they were God's people and would go to jail and suffer for his sake. When sentences to four days each, Storms cried out: "The Lord be praised."

Mnason and May Storms, his alleged wife, were in Newark yesterday afternoon, but will be arrested and also committed to jail on their reture.

The neighbors claim that the band have an "angel dance," all disrobing in a parior and, joining in a circle, wave a blanket with which they claim they drive away the devil. They are flant, and will now be arrested every "he law is broken.
